Family-friendly and open to all! We plan a "Kosher style" potluck, (meaning no pork products or shellfish). If possible, please bring a dish to share, though this is not required.

We will complete the evening with Havdalah (note: Havdalah will take place earlier than the official time as Shabbat ends late that night). For more information please contact jackie@jcuajuneteenth19 or avra@jcuajuneteenth19.

Juneteenth, annual commemoration of the emancipation of Africans and African-Americans from slavery, was first celebrated June 19, 1865 when news of the Emancipation Proclamation finally made its way to Galveston, Texas. It has since become a yearly tradition in many Black communities across the United States. Learn more about Kol Or and all our work at jcuajuneteenth19.org.

Join Kol Or, JCUA's Jews of Color Caucus,
for our Juneteenth Havdalah as we celebrate our freedom
with a potluck, some learning, and fun!
